It doesn't stop there! The long-awaited transformational D.I.V.A. PRINCIPLE CONFERENCE (Divine Inspiration for Victorious Attitude) is set to return to Chicago, Illinois on October 13th and 14th, 2023. The theme? SHIFT! This is an event you won't want to miss. This is not your average women's conference! Get ready for a time of introspection, coaching, and redirection in an interactive workshop format that will guide attendees through unpacking issues and arriving at liberating solutions.

Get real on issues such as Rediscovering & Redefining You, Navigating Change, and Emotional Intelligence. A special guest panel with neuropsychologist, Dr. Valencia Montgomery, author Dr. Jocelyn Jones, and author/radio host and tiny Habits (R) Coach, Juni Felix to discuss Overcoming Trauma, Finding Joy, and Shattering the Happiness Myth followed by a lively Q and A session tops off the day and settles all outstanding queries.

A special Friday evening concert and worship with Relevance, Michelle's music ministry all the way from Ghana, West Africa will top off our time together in an unforgettable way. This will be their American debut celebrating the release of a new project being released by Orchard/Sony Music. Relevance will also be performing at City Winery in Chicago on October 17th.

Come expecting to network, enjoy food for the body and soul, do a little shopping, (of course!), and leave full. Want to spend some personal time with Michelle? Sign up for the package that includes High Tea on Friday afternoon at the fabulous Drake Hotel!
